

CWA consensus meeting on

Authenticity in the feed and the food chain: General principles and basic requirements

Date: 22nd March 2018

Time: 13:00 – 17:00

Venue: Czech Liaison Office for Research, Development & Innovation (CZELO), Rue du Trône 98, 1050 Brussels, Belgium

One of the goals of the Authent-Net project is develop a low-level European voluntary standard (a CEN Workshop Agreement, or CWA) called "Authenticity in the feed and the food chain - General principles and basic requirements". As part of the CEN workshop process, CWA consensus meeting will be organised.

The purpose of this workshop is to create consensus-based recommendations for definitions of key terms and concepts related to food authenticity, and to provide recommendations for "best practice" underlying future communication and work related to food authenticity.

Agenda of the workshop:

- Welcome to the CEN Workshop consensus meeting
- General CEN Workshop concept presentation
- Business plan and background for this CWA
- Overall presentation of standard structure and content
- Feedback received so far and decisions made
- Plenary discussion on proposed CWA, section by section, individual decisions
- Voting, conclusions and overall decisions
- Further plans for this CWA
- Summarize and close the CWA consensus meeting

All interested parties are welcome to register for participation.
